

Cross-country golf in the wine region " Rheingau"

This is one of our Insider SPECIALS ..

Playing golf in an unstructured landscape, but around the famous vineyards;
i.e. the so called 'Rheingau'.

How does this work ?

Cross-country golf is becoming more and more popular, as you can have fun in a natural surrounding, in rough areas, soil or grass, and in one of the most beautiful country sides of Germany - the Rheingau!

This activity gears also to those who are not typical golf-aficionados, however the 2 - 3 hour walk among the vineyards is generally considered a lot of relaxing fun for anybody who enjoys outdoor activities.

Of course refreshments and regional snacks will be served.

In additional and or alternatively a visit to a wine cellar can be an additional attraction, combined with a tasting of local wines. Subsequently we can have a 3 or four-course dinner served as well.

Enjoy the Rheingau! From a different perspective..
